

Alexander H. Mun

Senior Associate

As a highly skilled and dedicated New York attorney, Alexander H. Mun joined Russell Friedman & Associates, LLP in 2012. He focuses on matters involving no fault litigation and arbitration, as well as real estate and general liability/personal injury lawsuits. Since joining our firm, he has been actively involved in all phases of the firm's practice and has become an integral part of our firm's dedicated legal team. We are proud to have such a passionate and knowledgeable attorney on our team who is committed to helping our clients be successful. His diligent approach to the cases he handles has led to many successful results.

Before joining our firm, Mr. Mun litigated a variety of complex no fault matters and engaged in all areas of litigation, from inception through appeal. He received his Bachelors of Science degree from New York University in May 2003 and his J.D. degree from Thomas Jefferson School of Law in May 2010. He was admitted to practice law in New York in December 2011 and in California in December 2010. He is a member of the Korean American Lawyers Association of Greater New York and is proficient in Korean. If you would like to retain Mr. Mun's legal services for your case, he can review the details of your situation during an in-person consultation, free of charge. He will provide you with the high-quality legal representation that your matter merits and deserves.
